LJ Crafted Wines

Fourth-generation wine pro Lowell Jooste is serving wine like you've never had it before. The South African native turned La Jolla resident created The Wine Steward, a device that allows high-end wine to be served directly out of the barrel without being tainted by oxygen. He's currently serving more than 10 varietals in Bird Rock—snag a seat at his surfboard bar—all made by one of Napa Valley's first female winemakers, Alison Green-Doran.
